Fischer Brown of Belgrade Advances to Elks Hoop Shoot National Finals

Chicago—Over the past nine months, tons of young athletes from across the country stepped up to the line to show off their free throw skills through the Elks Hoop Shoot. Only six will become National Champions.

Fischer Brown is one of 72 of the nation's best free throw shooters ages 8 to 13. Fischer's hard work and dedication has taken him from Belgrade to the Elks Hoop Shoot National Finals in Chicago.

Last fall, Fischer joined 8- to 13-year-olds across the country who competed in the 2017 Elks National Hoop Shoot Free Throw Contest. Fischer advanced through the local, district and state levels of competition, sinking the most of 25 free throws in his division at each contest. With a score of 21 out of 25 at the Northwest Central Regional Semi-Finals, Fischer secured his chance to shoot on the foul line at the National Finals.

The Elks Hoop Shoot National Finals tip off on April 22, 2017, in Chicago—home to the Elks National Headquarters. At the contest, the 72 National Finalists will compete to sink the most of 25 free throws and claim the National Championship. One boy and one girl in each of three age-groups will earn the prestigious title and have their names permanently inscribed on the Hoop Shoot plaque in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

Funded by the Elks National Foundation, the Elks Hoop Shoot has been developing gritty kids for more than 40 years, installing characteristics that lead to success, on and off the court. Stay connected during the final leg of Fischer's Hoop Shoot journey. Send Fischer an e-greeting to show him that he has the support of his community.
